Infant/Toddler Room

November Newsletter 2018

Gobble, gobble, turkey day is almost here! For the month of November we will be focusing on the color brown and the shape square. We will be encouraging the children to identify these in our environment. The goals we will be working toward are self feeding and eating with utensils for our older toddlers.

For the first week, we will be focusing on nutrition. Children will create various collages of healthy food. In our dramatic play area, we will have a fruit and vegetable stand. Children will also categorize these food items by color. We will talk with the children about different drinks and foods that can be yummy and healthy for our diet.

The second and third week we will be focusing on the Pilgrims, Native Americans and Thanksgiving. We will discuss Thanksgiving and things that we are thankful for and that make us happy. Children will be creating cornucopias, painted turkeys and much more.

The last week we will discuss dinosaurs. We will be making dino prints in playdough, dino headbands and more. This is going to be a fun month.
